RE: Prerecorded Message EBR Telemarketing Project No R411001

To Whom It May Concern:

We object to this invasion of our privacy by skirting the do not call list with recorded messages. We pay for a telephone for our convenience not to be bombarded with annoying sales calls. I resent the taxes levied against phone service. At least let the calls be of our choosing.

The telemarketers obtain their calling list with many dubious practices. Sign up for a raffle and you get calls. The most ridiculous assumptions are used to create these calling lists of business relationships.

When we signed up for the Do Not Call Lists that is what we meant. We do not want computers to call us either.

Sincerely,

James C MacLaren
